

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NAIROBI, KENYA: FRIDAY DECEMBER 31ST, 2021

SUBJECT: NEW YEAR MESSAGE TO KENYANS

Fellow Kenyans,

I wish to thank our stakeholders and Kenyans for the support they have continued to accord the Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC) since its establishment. The Commission is alive to the significant role played by stakeholders in the electoral process and assures you that it shall continue to engage all relevant stakeholders within the confines of the law and in particular Article 88 of the Constitution of Kenya 2010.

As we reflect on the election processes, the Commission re-assures you of its commitment to delivering a free, fair and credible August 9th General Election. The Commission is on course in planning and putting in place measures and mechanism to ensure a simple, accurate, verifiable, secure, accountable, impartial, efficient, credible and transparent General Election.

In fulfillment of one of its constitutional mandates, the Commission will in January 2022, conduct the second Enhanced Continuous Voter Registration (ECVR) and diaspora voter registration. We therefore urge all eligible citizens who are yet to be registered as voters to turn up at our Registration Centers for enrollment.

We must always remember our collective responsibility to ensure a peaceful, free and fair election in August 2022. I therefore appeal to our major stakeholders and all Kenyans, to extend their support to the Commission and campaign peacefully during the electioneering period.

I wish you a prosperous and peaceful new year, 2022.

God Bless Kenya.

W.W. CHEBUKATI
